Role(s)	Page Name	Description
Customer Admin Ex Customer Login: Email: tls@email.com Password: cust789 Ex Admin Login: Email: smith@test.com Password: pass789 (To see credentials for other user accounts, vie the 'setupusers.php' file in the 'dbsetup' folder.)	Login	• Users are prompted to login to either customer or login account. User account is required to access the site. • If user is new, they are prompted to click on a to create a new account. • Once customer or admin is logged in, they are directed to the index page to shop from a list of categories. • If the user is not authorized on a page, their session is ended and redirected to the login.
Customer Admin	Index	• This is the Suburban Outfitters home page that shows the main banner for promotions and product categories to shop and default after login. • The top nav-bar is introduced at the top of this page (and each following page) that allows access to the customer account, cart, and logout. • If admin role, "Admin Access" link is displayed to enter the admin account.
Customer Admin	custacct	• If customer is not logged in, customer is referred to login page. • Page displays customer account details. • Customer may edit account details and hit 'submit changes' button. • Page displays customers previous orders in order history that links to order details.
New Customer	newcustacct	• Once new customer is signed up, the customer will enter their new credentials at login in. • Their password is then submitted as hash to the database.
Customer Admin	orderdetails	• Page displays shipping details: name, address, status (shipped or processing) and tracking #. • Page also displays item details and order total amount.
Customer Admin	products	• Page displays lists of available products with thumbnail, title, and price including new items. • Customer may shop from list of categories displayed at the left of the page for faster shopping. • The thumbnail of each product is linked to the product details page.

Customer Admin	proddetails	• The product details page shows the product's image, price, description, SKU, category and tags. • A drop-down form is used to select the quantity of the product. • The customer can select the size and add several items to their cart after clicking the "add to cart" button. • Once clicking add to cart, the customer is prompted to the cart page.
Customer Admin	cart	• The cart displays all products added including price, quantity and total. • The customer can increase the quantity a product or delete the item from their cart. • The customer may return to shopping by clicking "continue shopping". • The cart displays cart total where user is prompted to enter a promo code. • After clicking the "apply a coupon" button on a valid promo code, the discount is applied to cart total. • The user is prompted to checkout cart by entering their shipping and credit card information. • The user will complete their order by clicking the "place order" button.
Customer Admin	Checkout	• Upon checkout, their cart is cleared and posted as an order to the database that also updates the inventory for that item. • For the customer, the page displays a checkout confirmation that includes order number of products added and order total. • The page also displays shipping details including status and tracking #.
Admin	adminacct	• The admin account is accessed in the nav-bar, once authenticated as an admin. • Admin can update their name, but not email or their store since that is not something we wanted employees to change for themselves. • Admin can see all customer orders they've assisted and select all 'View All Customer Orders" to see a list of orders. • There are also links to 'Manage Inventory' to add or update items and 'Sales Data' to see some basic sales statistics.
Admin	aorderlist	• Admin can see a list of all customer orders that with a link that directs to specific order details.

		• They can also filter and look up orders by order number in the search bar.
Admin	aorderdetails	• Admin can see detailed information about a selected order. • Admin can change update the shipping status of the order, edit the tracking number and attach which admin/employee has helped with that order and save.
Admin	aproducts	• Admin can view a list of all available products for sale on the site with a link to the details of each product. • Admin can add a new product With the '+Add New Product' button at the top of page.
Admin	aproddetails	• For a new product, Admin is shown an empty form that they can submit details on and then update the inventory for that product. The product details must be saved before the inventory can be updated. • If it's for an existing item, the Admin can make changes to product details and save with the 'Submit' button. • Admin can also remove a product with the 'Delete Product' button.
Admin	areports	• Admin can see details of all sales report for current months and other data points. • Currently the store options are Online or SLC Downtown